The Douglas Shire Sustainability Group is a community-based environmental advocacy organisation whose objects are:

- (a) To promote and encourage the adoption of the principals of ecologically sustainable development to all sectors of the community throughout the Douglas Shire;
- (b) To the protection and conservation of the unique environment in the Douglas Shire and its surrounds, including the Great Barrier Reef, the Wet Tropics and World Heritage areas;
- (c) To promote social, economic and environmental balance;
- (d) To promote and support environmentally sustainable practices, education and great environmental awareness amongst visitors to and residents of the Douglas Shire;
- (e) To recognise and promote the sustainable practices of the traditional owners of the Douglas Shire; and
- (f) To engage in any other activity in support of the objectives above (a to e) allowable under the Associations and Incorporations Act 1981 of the State of Queensland as amended.
